Re: Lcc v. SONY BMG MUSIC ENTERTAINMENT, et al.
07 CV 6733 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

We are counsel for Defendants SONY BMG MUSIC ENTERTAINMENT and Barbara Warnock-Morgan in the above-referenced action. At the suggestion of Mariela in Your Honor's chambers, I am writing the Court concerning the non-ECF status of this action.

On Friday, February 8, 2008, our office served and attempted to file electronically Defendants' motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint or, alternatively for summary judgment. We sent Your Honor courtesy copies by Federal Express the same day. Yesterday, I received notification from the Clerk's Office that our electronic filing was rejected because this action is not designated as ECF. The clerk whom I contacted has learned that this action was originally filed pro se by Plaintiff Patricia Harris Lcc. Because of her pro se status, the action was not given ECF designation.

Since the filing of her original complaint, Plaintiff engaged counsel and remains represented by Michael J. Borrelli, Esq. The clerk instructed me to contact Your Honor to request that an order be entered by the Court to designate the action as

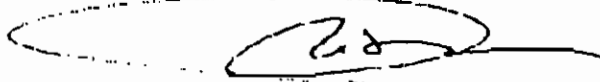

2/13/08
This action should be redesignated

ECF to facilitate the parties' ability to file papers electronically in this action. Upon entry of the order, we will re-file Defendants' motion papers electronically.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "JD", enclosed within a hand-drawn oval.
